

PRIVACY NOTICE IN RESPECT OF THE IOSCO ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENT FOR THE TRANSFER OF PERSONAL DATA BETWEEN EEA AND NON-EEA SECURITIES REGULATORS

This notice explains how the Central Bank of Armenia (the CBA) handles personal data received through international transfers from the European Economic Area (“EEA”) securities regulators. The CBA is a signatory to the IOSCO Administrative Arrangement that sets out the safeguards for the transfer of personal data between EEA and non-EEA securities regulators.

Collection and processing of personal data by the CBA

The CBA collects and processes personal data in the performance of its functions under Article 102.1 of the RA Law “On Securities market”, including by way of international transfers under the IOSCO Multilateral Memorandum of Understanding Concerning Consultation and Cooperation and the Exchange of Information (“IOSCO MMoU”).

With regard to personal data received through international transfers from the “EEA” securities regulators, the CBA is a signatory to the administrative arrangement for the transfer of personal data between EEA and non-EEA securities regulators (and is referred to in the Administrative Arrangement as an “Authority” and together with other signatories, the “Authorities”). By signing up to the Administrative Arrangement, the CBA has committed to handle personal data received from EEA securities and derivatives regulators in accordance with the safeguards set out in the Administrative Arrangement.

Personal data may be transferred where a matter is better handled by another body, where the transfer will assist another body in fulfilling its mandate, or where the sharing of personal data are required under an information sharing arrangement, such as the IOSCO MMOU.

Rights of a Data Subject

The CBA manages personal data in accordance with the provisions of the RA Law “On Protection of Personal Data”.

An individual whose personal data has been transferred from EEA securities regulators to the CBA (“Data subject”) has the right to request access to his or her personal data, subject to certain exemptions. A Data subject may also request that his or her personal data be corrected, if the individual believes that it contains an error or omission.

The CBA will handle the personal data received from EEA securities regulators in accordance with the safeguards set out in the Administrative Arrangement.

Questions or complaints
